1. Obligations of the parties to the Contract

1.1. The Tour Organiser shall undertake to:

1.1.1. Ensure that the Tourist(s) receive(s) all the services specified in the Contract in a proper manner, taking into account the Tourist's legitimate expectations, irrespective of whether these services are to be provided by the Tour Organiser itself or by other providers of tourism services. The Travel Advice, posted on www.coraltravel.lt and other materials describing the trip and the modified programme, are an integral part of this Contract. The Tour Organiser's website

www.coraltravel.lt posts the most up-to-date and relevant information about the trip and changes to the programme after the Contract is concluded.

1.1.2. If the minimum number of Tourists, i.e. 80 per cent of the seats on the scheduled flight, is not reached, notify the Tourist about the cancellation of the Contract in a durable medium before the start of the trip not later than within:

1.1.2.2. 7 days, if the duration of the trip is at least 2 days and not more than 6 days;

1.1.2.3. 48 hours if the journey is less than 2 days.

The latter information, or links to official websites where such information is available, shall be published on the website of the Tour Organiser www.coraltravel.lt.

1.1.5. Provide information on the name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, fax number of the local representative, tour manager, contact centre or other service of the Tour Organiser that enables the Tourist to quickly contact and communicate with the Tour Organiser, to seek assistance in the event of difficulties encountered by the Tourist, or to lodge a claim for improper performance of the Contract or for breach of the Contract. If there are no such representatives of the Tour Organiser, the Tourist shall be provided with a telephone number to call in case of an emergency or with information that would help him/her to contact the Tour Organiser. 1.1.8.1. to provide relevant information on health services, local authorities and consular assistance;

1.1.8.2. to assist the Tourist in using telecommunication facilities;

1.1.8.3. to help find alternative travel services.

1.1.9. Where the Tour Organiser is obliged to reimburse the Tourist for all or part of the money paid for the trip by or on behalf of the Tourist, the reimbursement shall be made without undue delay, but not later than within 14 days from the date of termination of the Contract, unless, within this period, in cases provided for in the Law on Tourism of the Republic of Lithuania, the Tourist and the Tour Organiser agree on the refund of the money paid for the trip that has not taken place by the means and under the terms and conditions set out in this Law.

1.2. The Tourist shall undertake:

1.2.1. To pay for the trip on time:

1.2.1.1. At the time of conclusion of the contract, the tourist pays an advance payment equal to the amount of the tickets' price.

1.2.1.2. The remaining part of the payment for the trip must be paid no later than the 29 days before the start of the trip. If the contract is concluded 29 and less days before the start of the trip, the Tourist pays the full price of the trip while booking the trip.

When the Tourist purchases the trip under the terms of an advance purchase or a special offer, a trip with a departure outside Lithuania and/or a trip or subject to special payment terms, the payment terms for the trip which differ from the standard payment terms referred to in this clause shall be separately stated in the Contract.

1.2.3. To provide in a timely manner all information and documents necessary for the Tour Organiser to perform this Agreement.

1.2.4. To arrive on time at the starting point of the journey, comply with the Trip Organiser's instructions for the journey or individual parts of the journey, and observe public order, international rules of carriage for passengers, baggage procedures and the quantity, number and prohibitions of items brought into the country. To comply with the instructions of the border and customs authorities. If the Tourist fails to arrive at the intermediate point of departure on time, he/she must return at his/her own expense to the initial point of departure or to the next intermediate stop on the itinerary.

1.2.5. To compensation for damages caused during the trip (damage to hotel equipment, vehicles, etc.). In the case of damage caused by a minor, the person responsible for the minor will be liable for all damages. If the Tourist accepts the fault and agrees to pay for the damage, it must be paid locally. In cases where the Tourist does not accept the fault, the Tour Organiser shall be entitled to recover the damages in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of the Republic of Lithuania. The Tourist shall not be obliged to compensate for damages caused by force majeure.

1.2.6. 1.2.7. The Tourist, the main party to this Contract, is obliged to inform the other Tourists – the beneficiaries that the tour is organised only in accordance with the terms of this Contract and all Tourists are obliged to comply with all the terms of the Contract and to provide them with all information sent by the Tour Organiser after the conclusion of the Contract.

1.2.8. ATTENTION! Persons with disabilities or reduced mobility who may require special assistance during air travel must make arrangements for the confirmation of seats with the actual flight operator or the tour operator before purchasing the ticket or package of the organised tour. Please note that different airlines also consider persons with reduced mobility to be persons with visual, hearing or intellectual disabilities. Thus, persons with reduced mobility or their representatives as well as representatives of children travelling unaccompanied by an adult must inform the actual operator of the flight or the tour operator, as for safety reasons no more than 2 passengers with reduced mobility and 4 children travelling unaccompanied by an adult may be carried on a single aircraft. In certain cases, a person's mental, emotional, physical or other medical condition may have a negative impact on the flight, both on the tourist and on the persons travelling with him/her (persons with special needs, with pacemakers, respirators, cardiac conditions, preparing for operations, etc.). These tourists must therefore consult and obtain the authorisation or advice of a medical doctor before entering into a contract for the provision of tourism services, taking into account the possible risks during the trip. If the tourist did not warn about his/her medical condition or possible risks and did not coordinate the flight with the operating carrier or tour operator, he/she assumes all the possible risks and negative consequences of such behaviour. It is noteworthy that under the general conditions of carriage of passengers and baggage of different airlines, the carrier has the right to refuse to carry such a passenger. Disabled persons and persons with reduced mobility are also advised to check with the travel agency or directly with the tour operator in the pre-contractual relationship whether the hotel in question will be able to provide adequate accommodation and will be accessible to disabled persons. Please also check the accessibility of the facilities around the hotel for disabled persons.

5.5. If the Tourist wishes to change the Contract, each case of change of the Contract shall be dealt with individually depending on the charging procedures and rules of the third parties used by the Tour Organiser. In all cases, the Tourist shall be informed about these procedures.

6. Change of parties to the Contract

In cases where such a transfer is contrary to the rules of the person whose assistance the Tour Organiser is using (i.e. if it is no longer allowed to book and/or change the place in the vehicle, the hotel and/or obtain a visa in the name of the new person within the time remaining before the start of the trip), this shall be stated in the Contract.

7. Responsibility of the Tour Organiser

7.1. The Tour Organiser shall be liable for any technical deficiencies in the booking system which are due to its fault at the time of concluding the Contract and for any errors made during the booking process. Liability shall not apply where the booking errors are due to the fault of the Tourist or caused by force majeure.

7.2. The Tour Organiser is obliged to provide the Tourist in difficulty with the necessary assistance referred to in Clause 1.1.8 of the Contract without undue delay.

7.3. If the assistance for the Tourist is necessary for reasons arising from the intentional actions or negligence of the Tourist, the Tour Organiser shall be entitled to charge a fee for the provision of such assistance, the amount of which shall not exceed the actual costs incurred by the Tour Organiser.

7.4. The Tourist must notify the Tour Organiser, without undue delay, using the contact details specified in the Contract, about any case of improper performance of the Contract or non-performance of the Contract which comes to his/her attention during the trip and give a reasonable time limit for the rectification of the deficiency. 7.5. If the services referred to in the Contract are not provided in accordance with the terms of the Contract, the Tour Organiser shall be obliged to remedy the deficiencies identified by the Tourist within a reasonable period of time, unless it is impossible to do so or if it would entail disproportionate costs taking into account the extent of the deficiencies and the value of the inadequately provided services referred to in the Contract.

7.6. If the Tour Organiser fails to remedy the deficiencies for the reasons set out in Clause 7.5 of the conditions of Contract, the Tourist shall be entitled to claim compensation for material and non-material damages without undue delay.

7.7. If the Tour Organiser fails to rectify the deficiencies within a reasonable period of time set by the Tourist, other than for the reasons set out in Clause 7.5 of the Contract, the Tourist may do so himself and claim reimbursement of the necessary costs.

7.8. If the Tour Organiser is unable to provide a substantial part of the services in accordance with the Contract, or if the Tourist's return service to the place of departure is not provided as agreed, the Tour Organiser must offer the Tourist, without an additional cost, the alternative services, which are of a quality, if possible, equivalent to or better than that specified in the Contract, in order to allow the journey to continue. Where the alternatives offered result in a lower quality of travel than that specified in the Contract, the Trip Organiser shall reduce the price of the trip accordingly.

7.9. If the alternatives offered are not similar to the services agreed in the Contract, or if the price reduction granted is inadequate, the Tourist may refuse them.

7.10. If the lack of compliance materially affects the performance of the trip and the Tour Organiser fails to remedy the situation within a reasonable period of time set by the Tourist, the Tourist may terminate the Contract without paying the cancellation fee and request reduction in the price and/or compensation for material and non-material damages.

7.11. If it is not possible to offer alternatives or if the Tourist refuses the alternatives offered in accordance with Clause 7.9 of the Contract, the Tourist shall be entitled to reduction of the price and/or compensation for material and non-material damages without termination of the Contract.

If the tour includes a passenger transport service, the Tour Organiser shall, in the cases referred to in Clauses 7.9 – 7.11 of this Contract, ensure the return of the Tourist to the original place of departure by an equivalent mode of transport or to another destination agreed by the Tourist, without any additional payment, as well as refund the Tourist the money for the services not provided.

7.13. If, due to force majeure, the Tour Organiser is unable to ensure the return of the Tourist in the manner provided for in the Contract, the Tour Organiser shall be obliged to pay the cost of the necessary accommodation, of a category equivalent, if possible, to that specified in the Contract, for the period of time for which the force majeure event lasts, but for a maximum of three nights for each Tourist, except where longer periods are provided for by other laws or regulations of the European Union (e.g. for persons with reduced mobility and their accompanying persons, pregnant women and unaccompanied minors, as well as persons requiring special medical assistance, provided that the Tourist informs the Tour Organiser about his/her special needs at least 48 hours before the start of the trip).

7.14. The Tourist has the right to claim compensation for material and non-material damage without undue delay in the following cases:

7.14.1. if the Contract cannot be further performed due to the deficiencies indicated by the Tourist and the Tour Organiser fails to remedy the deficiencies within a reasonable period of time set by the Tourist;

7.14.2. if the Tour Organiser is unable to offer alternative services for reasonable causes or the Tourist refuses them in accordance with Clause 7.9 of the Contract;

7.14.3. in other cases provided for in the Civil Code of the Republic of Lithuania.

7.15. The Tour Organiser shall not be liable for improper performance of the Contract if the Tour Organiser proves that the improper performance of the Contract was due to:

7.15.1. the Tourist's fault (e.g. the Tourist does not have the necessary and valid identity documents for the trip, does not arrive on time at the place of departure, interferes with the continuation of the trip, or does not comply with customs regulations);

7.15.2. the fault of a third party not involved in the provision of the services under the Contract and therefore the damage could not have been foreseen or avoided;

7.15.3. irresistible forces (force majeure).

7.16. If damage, other than damage caused by the death of the Tourist, bodily injury, intentional damage or damage caused by gross negligence, is caused to the Tourist during the provision of the service stipulated in the Contract, but the service is not provided by the Tour Organiser, the liability of the Tour Organiser for such damage shall be limited to three times the price of the trip.

7.17. The Tourist's right to compensation or to reduction in the price shall not affect the rights of passengers under Regulation (EC) No. 261/2004 of the European Parliament and of the Council as of 11 February 2004 establishing common rules on compensation and assistance to passengers in the event of denied boarding and of cancellation or long delay of flights, repealing Regulation (EEC) No. 295/91 (OJ 2004 L 046, p. 1), Regulation (EC) No. 1371/2007 of the European Parliament and of the Council as of 23 October 2007 on railway passengers' rights and obligations (OJ 2007 L 315, p. 14), Regulation (EC) No. 392/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council as of 23 April 2009 on the liability of carriers of passengers by sea in the event of accidents (OJ 2009 L 131, p. 24), Regulation (EU) No. 1177/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010 on the rights of passengers travelling by sea and inland waterway and amending Regulation (EC) No. 2006/2004 (OJ 2010 L 334, p. 1), Regulation (EU) No. 181/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council as of 16 February 2011 on the rights of bus and coach passengers and amending Regulation (EC) No. 2006/2004 (OJ 2011 L 55, p. 1), and in accordance with international conventions.

7.18. 9.1. Please note that the duration of the trip is calculated in nights, while the day of departure is the day of the travel start date and the return date is the end date of the trip. In the case of air travel, the first and last day of the trip is for the travel and not for the actual holiday.

9.2. The Tourist shall submit any claims arising during the trip due to improper performance or non-performance of the Contract in writing or on a durable medium to the tour leader specified in the Contract, the local representative of the Tour Organiser, the contact centre or other service, or if there is no such service, to the Tour Organiser without undue delay.

9.3. When the Contract is concluded through an Agent, the Tourist may submit notifications, requests or claims directly to the Agent, who shall transmit the notifications, requests or claims to the Tour Organiser without undue delay. Upon receipt by the Agent of the Tourist's notices, requests or claims, they shall be deemed to have been received by the Tour Organiser.

9.4. The Tour Organiser is obliged to examine the Tourist's request free of charge and, in case of disagreement with the Tourist's claims, is obliged to provide the Tourist with a detailed, reasoned written reply, supported by documents, no later than within 14 days from the day of receipt of the Tourist's request. If the Tour Organiser receives a defective claim (e.g. unsigned, submitted by a person who is not authorised to represent the Tourist, or who has not submitted documents confirming proper representation, or who has not attached evidence to substantiate the complaints set out in the claim, etc.), the Tour Organiser shall have the right to ask the Tourist to rectify the defects. Time limit for the Tour Organiser for the submission of a written reply shall be calculated from the date of receipt of the Tourist's request with the corrected deficiencies. The Tour Organiser shall have the right to extend the deadline for the examination of the claim for a period not exceeding 14 days for important reasons, by providing the Tourist with a notice in a durable medium. The Tourist's claims against the Tour Organiser for compensation of damages for improper performance or non-performance of the Contract shall be time-barred for two years. Claims shall be submitted to: a) Coral Travel Lithuania, Konstitucijos pr. 26, Vilnius; b) by filling in a claim form at www.coraltravel.lt/client/register, or c) at the point of sale where the Contract was concluded. Claims sent to addresses other than the above shall not be considered.

9.5. If the Tourist is not satisfied with the Tour Organiser's reply, he or she has the right to refer the same dispute to a consumer dispute resolution institution within one year. Disputes concerning improper performance or non-performance of the Contract shall be settled out of court in accordance with the procedure established by the Law on Consumer Rights Protection of the Republic of Lithuania at the State Consumer Rights Protection Authority, A. Goštauto g. 12, 01108 Vilnius, e-mail: tarnyba@vvtat.lt, phone: +370 5 262 6760, website www.vvtat.lt. The application can be submitted electronically via the EGS platform <http://ec.europa.eu/odr/>.

9.6. The Tourist's appeal to the consumer dispute resolution institution shall not deprive the Tourist of the right to apply to the court of general competence with a request to examine the dispute on its merits in accordance with the procedure established by the Civil Procedure Code of the Republic of Lithuania.

9.7. The Agreement shall be drawn up in two copies, having equal legal force – one copy for each party.

9.8. In the case the Contract is concluded remotely, the receipt of the Tourist's application form signed by the Tour Organiser or the Agent and the Tourist by e-mail, or the payment of all or part of the price [initial deposit] for the trip and the full amount of the insurance shall be deemed to constitute the conclusion of the Contract. In the case the Contract is concluded remotely, the Tour Organiser shall provide the Tourist with a copy of the Contract or the confirmation of the Contract on a durable medium without undue delay after the conclusion of the Contract. If the Contract is concluded remotely, the Contract shall be deemed to have been concluded on the terms and conditions published on the official website of the Tour Organiser www.coraltravel.lt at the time of purchase of the trip.

9.9. A copy of the off-premises contract or confirmation of the contract shall be provided to the Tourist in paper form or, if the Tourist agrees, on another durable medium.
